

BASIC VIDEOGRAPHY DRAMA CAMP CLASS

We will be offering this video course coinciding with Drama Camp EAST only for the second year. Class will run concurrent with but separate from Drama Camp. Registration is completely separate, and scheduling is slightly different. A student may NOT participate in both. Class size is extremely limited. Please register early.

GOALS

This course will cover a basic understanding of videography, including instruction on operating a camera, editing a final product, utilizing social media, creating content, etc.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

To successfully complete this course, students will need:

- Access to the internet
- Laptop to be brought to class
- Access to an email address
- Access to a printer
- A signed liability waiver per student (we provide this)
- Software which will be provided during class as needed and installed on your laptop

SCHEDULE

Students must be available Tuesday- Saturday September 15-19, 2020
Exact times will overlap drama camp hours, but not be quite as extensive.

- Each day we will cover a different aspect of video production
- Students will be taking photos and video clips throughout the week
- Students will be editing short videos to post via drama camp social media
- Students will film each production Friday evening and Saturday

NOTICE

All websites and software are screened for appropriate use by students, but neither drama camp nor the instructor can be held responsible for what is on the internet and what students may encounter.

INSTRUCTOR

Dee Legault has been involved with Drama Camp East for several years, including designing the current layout of our website. She works with the videography ministry at Fellowship Missionary and has educated herself as well as attended workshops on the subject. We are blessed to add this feature to drama camp. Please contact her directly with questions and specific schedule.
